47 U.S.C. Section 160(c); WC Docket No. 18-141; Category 1

Dear FCC,

If consumers were only give one option towards anything in life, would you be satisfied by just having one choice for the rest of your life. Companies like Sonic that work for the customers are providing excellent network services and have allowed me to thrive as a consumer and a business owner. I am also in a competitive market and know first hand that people deserve options. I support Sonic wholeheartedly and support broadband competition.
